

SALIMA S. ALIBHAI, RDH, BS, MPH.

Salima Alibhai received her undergraduate degree in Dental Hygiene from the Medical College of Georgia and her graduate degree in Public Health from the University of Washington School of Public Health and Community Medicine. She has worked in private practice and as a dental hygiene educator for over 10 years. Salima 's teaching affiliations include joint faculty with the Department of Graduate Periodontics with the University of Washington and Seattle Colleges. Currently teaching with Seattle Central College, she is faculty in the Dental Hygiene Senior Clinic and lead faculty for the Periodontology lecture series. She also serves as an advisor on infection control protocols for the program. Most recently, she worked with the Aga Khan University Diploma in Dental Hygiene Program as visiting faculty.

Professional Affiliations:

- American Dental Educators Association
- American Dental Hygienist Association
- Washington State Dental Hygiene Association
- Greater Seattle Dental Hygiene Association

Professional Awards:

- Hu-Friedy Golden Scaler Award
- Achievement Award – American Academy for Persons with Disabilities